

7th Annual

Genevieve Best Dorbor
Scholarship Fund Banquet & Dance

Genevieve Dorbor was born on February 5, 1941 in Liberia, West Africa, and was unexpectedly taken from us on July 11, 2006 in Los Angeles. Her legacy reaches far and wide, providing help to people internationally, nationally, and locally.

Through her work as director of the Immanuel Food Pantry from 1994-2006 she helped guide people in need to find recovery and stability in their lives. She was a beloved member, Deacon and staff member of Immanuel Presbyterian Church (IPC), and a vital part of Hope Net, the umbrella organization that provided most of the food for Immanuel's food pantry. She was known by many at Immanuel's partner church - Bel Air Presbyterian - as a heroic figure on the ground floor of serving the homeless. Genevieve was also active in the Queens Care Health and Faith Partnership that serves the health needs of this part of Los Angeles.

Genevieve's passion was to encourage young people to get an education. In her own household, she expected all her children and extended family to earn a college degree. She nurtured every young man and woman who came across her path, encouraging them to get an education. She started her own education at Saint Teresa's Catholic Convent and went onto Cuttington University College in Bong County, Liberia and later on to San Francisco State University where she earned her Master's Degree in Guidance Counseling. It was her commitment to education that makes this scholarship fund the best way to keep her legacy alive. The two scholarships will benefit high school students of Immanuel Presbyterian Church and Saint Teresa's Catholic Convent in Monrovia, Liberia.
